Dear Sir, -- On my return I learn that the requisition for bronze and nickel coin blanks for August has all been filled and we are now awaiting further orders from you for the work.

Commencing with September the Fall trade and business rush begins, and we shall be glad if you will, as far as possible, anticipate your wants for both sorts, giving us shipping directions for what you think will be required for September, and if possible, for Oct.

Yours truly,

Scovill Mfg. Co.
